Join us for a nighttime bus tour of neon signs, movie marquees and permanent installations of neon art throughout downtown and Hollywood. Developed by The Museum of Neon Art (MONA) in 1985, the narrated tour points out prime examples of local neon's aesthetic dimensions . . . placing them firmly in the context of the culture and history of Los Angeles. Before we visit MONA, we'll head over to Canter's Delicatessen and Restaurant on Fairfax , a family run business that started in Jersey City, New Jersey in 1924 and has been a Los Angeles landmark since 1931. Canter's is one of the few delicatessens in the United States that pickles their own pickles fresh in-house every morning. Their bakery goods are baked fresh twice daily on the premises and their potato salad, cole slaw, egg salad, and turkey salad are freshly prepared in house every day. After dinner, it's over to MONA for a tour of the museum and a wine and cheese reception. Then we'll board a double-decker tour bus for a neon tour of Los Angeles and Hollywood.

Timeless music performed by world-renowned musicians deftly led with a passion and energy unique to Maestro Victor Vener is the delightful fare that awaits you at each concert.
